Day 2

Las Vegas - Vehicle - Sedona - Vehicle - Chapel of the Holy Cross - Vehicle - Tlaquepaque Arts & Shopping Village - Vehicle - McDonald's With Blue Arches

All day

Depart from the hotel in the morning and head over to Sedona. Sedona is known numerous times for being rated as the most livable town by the National Geographic magazine. Then we will go to the local building landmark with the strongest magnetic field - Chapel of the Holy Cross. In the afternoon, you will have the opportunity to stroll through the Trak Pike Art and Shopping Village. Here, you can admire the beautifully decorated fountain in the courtyard. Finally, we will go to McDonald's, the only place in the world with blue logo.

Itinerary:

Las Vegas → Sedona → Chapel of the Holy Cross → Tlaquepaque Arts & Shopping Village (4 hours) → McDonald's With Blue Arches

Morning

Sedona

Sedona's main attraction is its array of red sandstone formations. The formations appear to glow in brilliant orange and red when illuminated by the rising or setting sun. The red rocks form a popular backdrop for many activities, ranging from spiritual pursuits to the hundreds of hiking and mountain biking trails.

Chapel of the Holy Cross

The Chapel of the Holy Cross is a Roman Catholic chapel built into the buttes of Sedona, Arizona. The main feature of the chapel is a 90 ft (27.4 m) tall iron cross on the southwestern wall, which serves both aesthetic and structural purposes.

Afternoon

Tlaquepaque Arts & Shopping Village

Tlaquepaque, meaning the “best of everything,” has been a significant Sedona landmark since the 1970s. Today Tlaquepaque remains a vibrant arts community and a Sedona cultural icon. With over 45 distinctive specialty shops there is something perfect here for everyone to discover. Just walking around Tlaquepaque is an adventure in discovery. Your senses will be delighted with the splashing sounds of courtyard fountains, the vibrant colors of its many gardens and the mouth-watering aromas wafting from a nearby restaurants.

Day 4

Monument Valley - Vehicle - Antelope Canyon - Vehicle - Horseshoe Bend - Vehicle -
Stargazing at Kanab

All day

Let's depart in the morning and take a ride to Monument Valley! Monument Valley is known as a symbol of America's original Great West, where formidable rocky pinnacles and endless drifting red sands will take you back to classic Wild West movies. Following, we will go to the world-famous Antelope Canyon to admire the beautifully curved red sandstone walls and feel the ultimate blend of light and shadow. Next, we will discover Horseshoe Bend which is known as one of the top ten best photography locations in the entire United States. Here, the horseshoe-shaped red giant rocks are dazzling in the sun, and the emerald-like Colorado River makes people amazed by the magic of mother nature! Then, we will head to the small town of Kanab, Utah, for a unique stargazing trip! There, we will enjoy the views of the bonfires in the dark wilderness, the sound of burning wood, the fragrant barbecue, and the dazzling and charming stars!

Itinerary:

Monument Valley (Mandatory, 90 mins, jeep tour included) → Antelope Canyon (Mandatory, 90 mins) → Horseshoe Bend (90 mins) → Stargazing at Kanab (Mandatory)

All day

Monument Valley

Monument Valley is a region of the Colorado Plateau characterized by a cluster of vast sandstone buttes, the largest reaching 1,000 ft above the valley floor. It is located on the Arizona–Utah state line, near the Four Corners area.

Monument Valley has been featured in many forms of media since the 1930s. Director John Ford used the location for a number of his best-known films and thus, in the words of critic Keith Phipps, "its five square miles [13 square kilometers] have defined what decades of moviegoers think of when they imagine the American West."

Lower Antelope Canyon

Lower Antelope Canyon is a slot canyon in the American Southwest, on Navajo land east of Page, Arizona. Upon arrival at the Lower Antelope Canyon, you will come off the truck and step into the desert and enter an amazing fantasy world. The tour guides will explain some geology, culture, history and insights. Walking through the sandstone walls of the Lower Antelope Canyon you will discover the magical world and immerse yourself in the tour.

Horseshoe Bend

Horseshoe Bend has been featured as a landmark for Glen Canyon National Recreation Area, Grand Canyon National Park, the Cities of Page AZ, Kanab UT, St George UT, and the Navajo Nation. Boundary lines are very close in some places. About nine miles downstream is where Grand Canyon National Park begins. A social media darling, Horseshoe Bend has become one of the most recognized and visited places in Glen Canyon National Recreation Area.

Day 5

Bryce Canyon National Park - Vehicle - Zion National Park - Vehicle - Las Vegas

All day

Discover with us today Bryce National Park, this is the smallest and most unique national park in Utah. Afterwards, we will head over to Zion National Park which is known as an adventure paradise for hikers around the world. The clear river and the sunlight sloping into the canyons are simply fascinating to watch. You may also spot rare wildlife while walking on the trails. Then, we will end the pleasant journey and return to Las Vegas.

Itinerary:

Bryce Canyon National Park (Mandatory, 90 mins) → Zion National Park (Mandatory, 90 mins) → Las Vegas

All day

Zion National Park

Utah's First National Park. Follow the paths where ancient native people and pioneers walked. Gaze up at massive sandstone cliffs of cream, pink, and red that soar into a brilliant blue sky. Experience wilderness in a narrow slot canyon. Zion's unique array of plants and animals will enchant you as you absorb the rich history of the past and enjoy the excitement of present day adventures.

Bryce Canyon National Park

Bryce Canyon National Park is an American national park located in southwestern Utah. The major feature of the park is Bryce Canyon, which despite its name, is not a canyon, but a collection of giant natural amphitheaters along the eastern side of the Paunsaugunt Plateau. Bryce is distinctive due to geological structures called hoodoos, formed by frost weathering and stream erosion of the river and lake bed sedimentary rocks. The red, orange, and white colors of the rocks provide spectacular views for park visitors.
