Day 2

Santiago Half-day City Tour

---

All day

After breakfast at the hotel, follow our professional tour guide to take a half-day tour in San Diego! First we will head to the downtown to visit the Plaza de Armas and its surrounding communities and get a better understanding of the history of the city. Then follow us to picturesque Cerro Santa Lucia, where you can have a panoramic view of the entire city from the mountain top. Along the way, you'll see ancient churches and monasteries and hear some stories about the city's colonial history.

Itinerary:

Plaza de Armas de Santiago → Cerro Santa Lucia

All day

Plaza de Armas de Santiago

The Plaza de Armas de Santiago is considered the heart of the capital of Chile, marking the milestone known as Kilometer Zero, from which the distance between the different cities of the country begins to be measured. In its surroundings not only emblematic buildings converge, symbols of the origin of the city and witnesses of its development of more than four centuries, but also characteristic characters that fill this space with life. The plaza was laid out by the architect Pedro de Gamboa. The Municipality, the Central Post Office, the National Historical Museum and the Metropolitan Cathedral were installed around it. Since its establishment it has been the social heart of Santiago, without ever losing its status as the center of citizen life and undisputed heritage and tourist icon of the capital.

Cerro Santa Lucia

Cerro Santa Lucía is one of the most visited public green areas in the capital. It is a silent witness of the growth of the city of Santiago since the Spanish conquerors arrived in the Mapocho Valley on December 13, 1540. You can find an original Spanish coat of arms, a mythical bell that used to belong to the Church of the Company of Jesus, a museum, telescopes, swings and a beautiful merry-go-round here. Streetlights, statues, fountains and vases were brought from Europe to ornament and embellish the place.

Day 3

Viña del Mar & Valparaíso 1 Day Tour

All day

Viña del Mar is known as the "Garden City" because it was originally surrounded by large green areas and now retains vast and beautiful urban gardens. Also known as the "Gem of the Pacific," the city is the headquarters of the country's legislative branch and home to the Chilean Navy. You will see various historic buildings and the famous Flower Clock. The port and bay are also not to be missed! At noon, you can choose to have a lunch at a local restaurant and taste delicious seafood. Before arriving at Valparaíso, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, we will drive along the seaside and enjoy the beautiful scenery of the Pacific coast. You'll visit Cerro Alegre, where you can appreciate what this city has to offer - its lovely cable cars, colorful neighborhoods and unforgettable sea views.

Itinerary:

Santiago → Viña del Mar (Funk Museum and lunch fees included) → Valparaíso → Santiago

All day

Viña del Mar

Fonck Museum

The Fonck Museum was created on November 25, 1937. Its name recalls the German doctor and philanthropist settled in Chile, Dr. Francisco Fonck Foveaux, in recognition of his work and research in the field of archaeology. The mission of the Museum of Vina del Mar is to deliver a summary of the Chilean Prehistory, Ethnography and Natural History. It highlights the Easter Island exhibition and has exhibitions of Native Peoples of Continental Chile and part of South America. It has a sample of Natural History that includes fauna of Chile and insects of the national territory.

Valparaíso

Valparaíso is a city located 120 kilometers west of Santiago. It is the nation's main port, the capital of the fifth state, and the legislative seat of the state. Densely populated hills and ancient elevators are known. Highlights include the National Assembly, Prat Pier, Artillery Elevator, Sotomayor Square, 21st May Avenue, the Pablo Neruda Museum Casa "Sebastián" and the Arturo Prat Naval Museum.
