Morning Breakfast

Include breakfast

All day

Good morning from Bogota! After breakfast, we will drive to the famous Catedral de Sal. This Salt Church is built 180 meters underground, and more than 250 tons of salt was removed in order to build it. The cathedral houses numerous art collections made of salt and marble, which is really an architectural wonder in itself. Afterwards, follow us as we head to Laguna de Guatavita, which is said to be the center of "El Dorado." After the tour, we will drive back to Bogotá and check-in at the hotel.

Itinerary:

Bogotá → Zipaquirá → Catedral de Sal (2 hours, ticket included) → Laguna de Guatavita (1 hour, ticket included) →

Bogotá

All day

Catedral de Sal

Come and enjoy the magic of salt! Located 200 metres (660 ft) underground, this Roman Catholic church is a building completely carved with salt. The icons, ornaments and architectural details are hand carved in the halite rock. Some marble sculptures are included. The cathedral is considered one of the most notable achievements of Colombian architecture, being described as a "Jewel of Modern Architecture".

Laguna de Guatavita

Lake Guatavita is a small body of water in a forest-fringed crater, northeast of Bogotá in central Colombia. It was a sacred site to the Muisca people, who cast elaborate gold offerings into its depths, inspiring the legend of El Dorado and several ill-fated attempts to drain the lake. Also, with many trails and birds, the area is a perfect destination for natural lovers.

Rise and shine! Today we will visit the most prestigious gold museum in South America. Colombia is rich in gold and is known as the "land of gold." The Museo del Oro, or the Gold Museum houses the largest collection of gold objects in the world. It has over 26,000 gold objects of immeasurable value. There is also much of jade ware displayed throughout the museum. It even includes the largest jadeite in the world. You can appreciate the valuable collections and learn more about the Indian culture. Following, we will head to Montserrat Mountain! During the cable car ride, you can enjoy the beautiful scenic views of the entire city. After dinner, our staff will transfer you to the airport and you will take a flight to Medellín, the second largest city in Colombia.

Itinerary:

Museo del Oro (2 hours, ticket included) → Monserate (1 hour, cable car fee included) → Fly from Bogota to Medellin
(Air ticket included, without a guide's company on the plane)

All day

Museo del Oro

Museo del Oro is Bogotá's most famous museum and one of the most fascinating in South America, the Gold Museum contains more than 55,000 pieces of gold and other materials from all of Colombia's major pre-Hispanic cultures. There's more to understanding the stories than the descriptions can convey, so try taking an exciting tour with us!

Monserate

Monserate is a high mountain over 10,000 feet high that dominates the city center of Bogotá. It rises to 3,152 meters above the sea level, where there is a church with a shrine, devoted to El Señor Caído. To get to the top of mountain faster, you can take a funicular or cable car. However, the pedestrian path is ideal for enjoying nature, the vestiges of the indigenous path, exercising, browsing interesting handicrafts and interacting with the rich culture of this country.

Medellin City Tour

Morning Breakfast

Include breakfast

All day

This morning we will take a tour of the city of Medellin. The most thrilling spots are El Pueblito Paisa and Plaza Botero for their close connection with the local artist Fernando Botero. Here, you will see many masterpieces designed and created by him! At noon we will have a meal in the coffee plantation. You can experience the fun of coffee picking in the afternoon.

Itinerary:

Medellin City Center Tour (2 hours): Municipal Building → Plaza Botero → El Pueblito Paisa → Medellin City Museum → Coffee Plantation (2 hours, ticker included)

Morning

El Pueblito Paisa

Pueblito Paisa is a replica of a turn-of-the-century town located in the hills of Medellín and offers people a chance to experience traditional Antioquian culture. The Pueblito consists of a town square with a fountain at its center, colorfully-painted buildings, a beautiful white church, and green gardens complete with walking tracks and an outdoor gym. Here, you'll find cobblestone streets, colorful buildings and amazing views of the city. Additionally, the famous

Museum of the City (Museo de Ciudad) is located here as well and is worth a visiting.

Plaza Botero

Botero Plaza, surrounded by the Museum of Antioquia and the Rafael Uribe Uribe Palace of Culture, is a 7,000 m2 outside park that displays 23 sculptures by Colombian artist Fernando Botero, who donated these and several other artworks for the museum's renovation in 2004. The plaza is located in an area of Medellín, known as the "Old Quarter".

Afternoon

Coffee Plantation

Colombia is the second largest coffee exporter in the world. It mainly produces Arabica coffee, which is mainly processed by water washing, with excellent and balanced flavor and quality. The coffee beans produced in Medellin are full of particles, rich in nutrients, moderate in acidity and good in balance. Today, you will experience the fun of coffee bean picking, which is not to be missed.

Let's get up and explore Guatapé! Here stands Laguna de Guatapé with 649 ladders! When climbing to the top of this large rock, you can overlook the whole town and lakes surrounding it. We will then return to the hotel for lunch at noon and in the afternoon, you can enjoy some free shopping time!

Itinerary:

Medellin → Guatapé → Laguna de Guatapé → El Peñón de Guatapé → Hotel → Free Shopping at Shopping Mall

Morning

Laguna de Guatapé

Visit Laguna De Guatapé in Colombia and give your eyes a treat of natural beauty! Small green and rocky islands surrounded by blue water, is a magnificent sight to behold. You can watch this serene beauty from the top of Penol rock, which is just nearby.

El Peñón de Guatapé

The El Peñón de Guatapé or Piedra de Penol, is a massive stone rising over 650 feet out of the flat ground of Guatapé. The rock, which is almost entirely smooth, has one long crack, the one that the climbers used in ascending it. In the crack was later wedged a 649-step masonry staircase, the only way to get to the top of the Piedra de Penol. You can ascend the rock along the staircase to overlook the dramatic series of lakes and islands.

Escape the hustle and bustle of the city and visit the beautiful Rosario Islands! Take a motorboat from Cartagena and head to the picturesque natural wonders in the turquoise crystal-clear waters. Take a look at the breathtaking beautiful beaches and unique coral reefs. Discover Pirate Island which is the smallest island in the archipelago, but definitely the prettiest. Compared with the other surrounding islands, Pirate Island is a much quieter place to visit with fewer tourists around. You can swim and snorkel in the azure waters or relax on the soft sandy beaches to take in all the sunshine!

Itinerary:

Hotel → El Rosario and San Bernardo Corals National Natural Park (Including national park ticket, lunch, and round-trip speedboat transfer services from the Cartagena hotel to the national park, you can also visit the aquarium or go diving at your own expense)

All day

El Rosario and San Bernardo Corals National Natural Park

Meet the most iconic marine life paradise in all of Colombia at El Rosario and San Bernardo Corals National Natural Park! The Rosario Islands are a small archipelago of a few islands, located approximately two hours by boat from Cartagena de Indias. This place was declared as a national park due to the needs of preserving and protecting the coral reefs and associated ecosystems which include sea grasses, mangroves, and many other species of algae and animals living on the Caribbean coast. The crystal-clear waters and white beaches invite you to experience a large variety of flora and fauna. At the Rosario and San Bernardo islands, water activities such as canoeing, snorkeling, and diving are all must-do activities. You can also visit the aquarium, which is located in one of the main islands, or just relax to enjoy the sun and try delicious seafood.
