Day 3 Seoul - Vehicle - Paju - Vehicle - Seoul

---

All day

After breakfast, we will first go to the mysterious Demilitarized Zone to explore the influence of Korean War. You can enjoy the beautiful scenery by taking the cable car. And you will have the opportunity to visit the Lingjin Pavilion and see different kinds of military equipment used in the war. The Freedom Bridge representing the reunion of Korean peninsula is also a spot that you cannot miss. Then we will head to Heyri Art Village. This Village is a complex village jointly built by more than 370 artists from the folk and local villagers, which has multiple functions such as catering, entertainment and sightseeing.

Itinerary:

Seoul → Demilitarized Zone (120 mins) → Paju → Heyri Art Village (60 mins) → Han Jeung Mak (150 mins) → Seoul

All day

Demilitarized Zone

The Demilitarized Zone refers to the buffer zone between North Korea and South Korea. The Linjin Pavilion in the zone is composed of the North Korean Memorial Hall, the Unity Park and various monuments. Outside the Pavilion, there are also 12 kinds of military equipment such as tanks and aircraft used in the war. The "Peace Stone" stored in the pavilion is collected from the battlefields of countries all over the world, recording the contents related to war. In addition, there is a "Peace Bell" made of iron hat and various weapons. The Freedom Bridge was built after the signing of the Korean War Armistice Agreement in 1953. More than 12000 prisoners of war returned to South Korea from this bridge. When they crossed the bridge, they shouted "Long live freedom", hence the name "Freedom Bridge".

Heyri Art Village

Heyri Art Village is a cultural village where Korean artists from various fields live together. In addition to the living quarters, there are also studios, art galleries, museums, etc. of artists in this community. Up to now, Heyri Art Village has more than 40 art functional buildings, including museums, exhibition halls, concert halls and bookstores.

Day 4

Seoul - Vehicle - Chuncheon-si - Vehicle - Seoul

All day

After breakfast, we will drive to Nami Island, which is famous for the popular Korean drama "Winter Love Song". Nami Island has beautiful scenery all the year round, and you can enjoy the beauty and peace of this island when walking along the Dawn Redwood Road. Following, we will head to Bukchon Hanok Village, which is the best place to experience traditional culture in Seoul. Then we will watch the The Painters show. Handsome actors, exquisite painting techniques, funny plots, romantic love stories, all of these will give you an unforgettable memory! Finally, we will go to the busy commercial street Myeongdong, where you can enjoy a variety of delicious food while shopping.

Itinerary:

Seoul → Nami Island + Dawn Redwood Road (150 mins, ticket included) → Seoul → Bukchon Hanok Village (60 mins) → The Painters (80 mins, ticket included) → Myeongdong

All day

Nami Island

The Winter Love Song starring Cui Zhiyou and Pei Yongjun has moved countless people and made Nami Island a popular attraction. Nami Island is located at the boundary between Gyeonggi-do and Gangwon in South Korea. The scenery varies from season to season. Autumn and winter are the most beautiful. There are ostriches, deer and various waterfowl on the island, and the famous metasequoia forest has become a popular photography spot.

Dawn Redwood Road

Dawn Redwood Road is located in Nami Island. It has become a popular scenic spot due to the shooting of many Korean TV dramas, and is the "must shoot place" of Nami Island. The redwood trees in the forest were transplanted from Seoul Agricultural University, now you can enjoy the green shadow in spring and summer, appreciate the red maple leaves in autumn, and feel the romance of snow in winter.

Bukchon Hanok Village

With a history of 600 years, Bukchon Hanok Village is a traditional residential area in Seoul. This village is famous for its eight sceneries, and the houses built before has been preserved so well. In addition to the traditional Korean houses, Korean food restaurant, Korean clothing shop, traditional manual workshop and other fixed forms, there are also coffee shops, western restaurants, painting galleries and other modern buildings. Bukchon Hanok Village is also the shooting place of many Korean dramas, such as Winter Love Song, Gentleman's Character and She's Beautiful.

The Painters

The Painters Show is a stage play that combines stereoscopic images with live painting. The theme of the performance is "heroes". Through more than 10 kinds of art technologies, Michael Jackson, Bruce Lee and other heroes in people's hearts are "reborn" on the stage. This play is a silent play without lines from beginning to end. So for foreign audiences who are not familiar with Korean, there is no obstacle to understanding. Come and enjoy the happiness!

Myeongdong

The premier shopping district of Korea is located in central Seoul and mixed modern shopping, local culture and modern fusion. Myeongdong is not just the main Myeongdong Gil-8 shopping district, but also the neighboring streets packed with funky little shops, roadside stalls, and vendors of fashion, trinkets and souvenirs. Nearby there are important cultural sights including of course the Myeongdong Cathedral which is a must-visit destination in Seoul.

Day 5

Seoul In-depth One Day Tour

---

All day

After breakfast, we will head to Gyeongbokgung Palace, which is known as the Forbidden City of Korea. With a history of more than 600 years, Gyeongbokgung Palace is the location of many popular Korean dramas. You can wear hanbok and come to Gyeongbokgung Palace to take a set of beautiful photos. Come and leave your memories! Then go to visit Cheonggyecheon Stream. This is an ideal place for people to feel culture, get close to nature, observe and learn ecology. Following we will go to Gwanghwamun Square, the center of citizens' rest and entertainment, for sightseeing. After that, we will head to Gwangjang Market. There are many kinds of goods sold in the market, and there are also many vendors selling authentic Korean snacks. The food here is affordable, the atmosphere is friendly, and the atmosphere is particularly grounded. Sitting at a lively table, eating traditional Korean snacks and drinking a glass of soju, you have become a Korean local unconsciously! Finally, go to Hongik University Street to feel the youthful vitality here.

Itinerary:

Gyeongbokgung Palace (120 mins) → Cheonggyecheon Stream → Gwanghwamun Square → Gwangjang Market → Hongik University Street

All day

Gyeongbokgung Palace

Gyeongbokgung Palace, located north of Gwanghwamun Square, is one of the most iconic sights in all of Korea thanks to its long and storied history. Construction on Gyeongbokgung Palace was completed in 1395 at the beginning of the Joseon Dynasty during the reign of King Taejo. Gyeongbokgung, which means "palace greatly blessed by Heaven," was built in the heart of Seoul surrounded by Mount Bugaksan and Mount Namsan.

Cheonggyecheon Stream

Cheonggyecheon Stream is an 8.4 kilometer (5.2 mile) waterway and public space that runs from west to east through the heart of downtown Seoul. During the Joseon Dynasty, the stream was known as Gaecheon, meaning open stream.

Gwanghwamun Square

Gwanghwamun Square is located in the center of Seoul. The square not only displays the history of South Korea in various forms, but also builds various facilities symbolizing Seoul. The square stands the statue of General Li Shunchen completed in 1968 and the newly created bronze statue of Emperor Shizong. To commemorate Li Shunchen's victory in the 23rd World War against Japan in the sea with 12 navy ships, the Square has built 100 spray basins, which are quite magnificent.

Gwangjang Market

Gwangjang Market is definitely the best place to feel the Korean characteristics. There are many kinds of goods sold in the market, ranging from hanbok, cloth, silk to vegetables, fruits, meat, seafood and etc.. There is a long food street in the market, where you can eat a variety of delicious food. Many reality shows have come here for filming, such as RUNNING MAN. Today, the Gwangjang Market has become a must-see place for tourists.

Hongik University Street

The area in front of Hongik University is a neighborhood known for its youthful and romantic ambience, underground cultures, and freedom of self-expression. Unique cafes, cozy galleries, accessory stores, fashion shops, live cafés and clubs, art markets, and gourmet eateries make this a popular hang-out for locals in their 20s and 30s and a fascinating place to walk around.
