All day

After breakfast, we will drive to Nami Island, which is a famous popular Korean drama "Winter Love Song." Nami Island has beautiful scenery displayed year-round. You can enjoy the beauty and peace of this island when walking along the Dawn Redwood Road. Following that, we will head to Starfield Library, a popular place waiting to be visited. Shortly after, we will watch The Painters show! Handsome actors, exquisite painting techniques, funny plots and romantic love stories, all waiting for you to discover to leave you with an unforgettable memory!

Itinerary:

Seoul → Nami Island & Dawn Redwood Road (150 mins, ticket included) → Seoul → Starfield Library (40 mins) → The Painters (80 mins, ticket included)

All day

Nami Island

The Winter Love Song starring Cui Zhiyou and Pei Yongjun has moved countless people and made Nami Island a popular attraction. Nami Island is located between Gyeonggi-do and Gangwon in South Korea. The scenery varies from season to season. Autumn and winter are the most beautiful and there are ostriches, deer and various waterfalls on the island. The famous metasequoia forest has even become a popular photographic spot.

Dawn Redwood Road

Dawn Redwood Road is located in the Nami Island. It has become a popular scenic spot due to the shooting of many Korean TV dramas and it is the "must go place" of Nami Island. The redwood trees in the forest were transplanted from Seoul Agricultural University. Take a look at the green shadows in the spring and summer. And, in the autumn, take a look at the red maple leaves, and in the winter, enjoy the beautiful snow scenery.

Starfield Library

Located in the center of COEX Mall, Starfield Library is an open public space where anyone can freely come to sit down, take a break, and immerse themselves in books along with other bibliophiles. A wide selection of books in various genres such as humanities, economics, hobbies, etc. are readily available. Whole sections of the library are dedicated to foreign books and famous authors.

The Painters

The Painters Show is a stage play that combines stereoscopic images with live paintings. The theme of the performance is "heroes." Through more than 10 kinds of art technologies, world famous stars like Michael Jackson, Bruce Lee and others can be "reborn" on the stage. This play is a silent play without lines from the beginning to the end. Come and enjoy this one-of-a-kind production!

All day

After breakfast, we will first go to the mysterious Demilitarized Zone to explore the influence of the Korean War. You can enjoy the beautiful scenery by taking the cable car and you will also have the opportunity to visit the Lingjin Pavilion to see the different kinds of military equipment used in the war. The Freedom Bridge represents the reunion of the Korean peninsula and is definitely worth the visit. Then, we will head to Myeongdong to have a break! Finally, let's experience Korea's 600-year-old Han Jeung Mak. The steaming steam room will help you warm the body and get rid of the fatigue from the journey.

Itinerary:

Seoul → Paju → Demilitarized Zone (120 mins) → Seoul → Myeongdong (90 mins) → Han Jeung Mak (150 mins)

All day

Demilitarized Zone

The Demilitarized Zone refers to the buffer zone between North Korea and South Korea. The Linjin Pavilion in the zone is composed of the North Korean Memorial Hall, the Unity Park and other various monuments. Outside the Pavilion, there are also 12 kinds of military equipment such as tanks and aircraft that were used in the war. The "Peace Stone" stored in the pavilion is collected from the battlefields of countries from all over the world. In addition, there is a "Peace Bell" made of an iron hat and various weapons. The Freedom Bridge was built after the signing of the Korean War Armistice Agreement in 1953. More than 12,000 prisoners of war returned to South Korea from this bridge. When they crossed the bridge, they shouted, "Long Live Freedom," hence the name "Freedom Bridge."

Myeongdong

The premier shopping district of Korea is located in central Seoul and comprises a mix of local and modern shopping experience. Myeongdong is not just the main Myeongdong Gil-8 shopping district, but it is also the neighboring streets packed with funky little shops, roadside stalls, vendors of fashion, and souvenirs. Nearby, there are important cultural sights including the Myeongdong Cathedral which is a must-visit destination in Seoul.

Day 4

Seoul In-depth One Day Tour

All day

After breakfast, we will head to the Gyeongbokgung Palace, which is known as the Forbidden City of South Korea. With a history of more than 600 years, Gyeongbokgung Palace is the location of many popular Korean dramas. Following, we will visit Cheonggyecheon Stream. This is an ideal place for people to feel the true culture, get close to nature, and to observe and learn about the ecology. Next, we will go to Gwanghwamun Square, the center of citizens' rest and entertainment, for sightseeing. After that, we will head to Bukchon Hanok Village. There are many traditional Korean houses. Then follow us to go to the Hongik University Street, which is loved by young people. Finally we will go to the famous Dongdaemun Market.

Itinerary:

Gyeongbokgung Palace (120 mins) → Cheonggyecheon Stream & Gwanghwamun Square (60 mins) → Bukchon Hanok Village (50 mins) → Hongik University Street (90 mins) → Dongdaemun Market (30 mins)

All day

Gyeongbokgung Palace

Gyeongbokgung Palace, located north of Gwanghwamun Square, is one of the most iconic sightseeing places to discover in all of South Korea due to its long and valued history. Construction on the Gyeongbokgung Palace was completed in 1395 at the beginning of the Joseon Dynasty during the reign of King Taejo. Gyeongbokgung, which means “palace greatly blessed by Heaven,” was built in the heart of Seoul surrounded by Mount Bugaksan and Mount Namsan.

Cheonggyecheon Stream

Cheonggyecheon Stream is an 8.4-kilometer (5.2 mile) waterway and public space that runs from west to east through the heart of downtown Seoul. During the Joseon Dynasty, the stream was known as Gaecheon, meaning an open stream.

Gwanghwamun Square

Gwanghwamun Square is located in the center of Seoul. The square not only displays the history of South Korea in various forms, but it is also home to various facilities symbolizing Seoul. The square stands at the statue of General Li Shunchen completed in 1968 and the newly created bronze statue of Emperor Shizong. To commemorate Li Shunchen's victory in the 23rd War against Japan in the sea with 12 navy ships. The Square has also built 100 spray basins, which are truly quite magnificent.

Bukchon Hanok Village

With a history of 600 years, Bukchon Hanok Village is a traditional residential area in Seoul. This village is famous for its eight sceneries, and the houses have been preserved so well. In addition to the traditional Korean houses, restaurants, clothing shops, traditional manual workshop and other fixed forms, there are also coffee shops, western restaurants, painting galleries and other modern buildings to explore. Bukchon Hanok Village is also a famous shooting place of many Korean dramas films such as the Winter Love Song, Gentleman's Character and She's Beautiful.

Hongik University Street

The area in front of Hongik University is a neighborhood known for its youthful, underground cultures, and freedom of self-expression. Containing unique cafes, cozy galleries, accessory stores, fashion shops, live cafés and clubs, art markets, and gourmet eateries, it truly makes this street a popular hang-out for locals in their 20s and 30s, and a fascinating place to walk around to explore.

Dongdaemun Market

Dongdaemun Market is a large commercial district consisting of over 20 shopping malls and traditional markets, 30,000 shops, 50,000 manufacturers. All of this can be found within a few city blocks. The market is named after the nearby Heunginjimun Gate (Dongdaemun Gate). When opened in July, 1905, it was known as Baeugaejang. During the Korean War, the area was completely destroyed. In 1959, a new market building was constructed. Since then, the market has been slowly rebuilt and modernized to become what it is today.
