Tour introduction

Day 1

Cancun

All day

As the most popular tourist resort destination in Mexico, Cancun has it all! Upon your arrival to Cancun, you must experience an all-inclusive resort hotel!

*Our company provides a 24-hour airport pick-up service on the first day of your tour. Our professional and welcoming staff will pick you up from the airport and provide transportation services to the hotel for check-in!

With the innovative ALL-FUN inclusive concept, Xcaret Hotels provide a one-stop all-inclusive service for eating, drinking, living, and playing! Enjoy the best hotel in the Mexican Caribbean with your family or friends.

You can dine at twelve restaurants located in the hotel. Satisfy up to three meals a day (10 of which are free, 2 are paid at your own expense). Mexican, Brazilian, and Asian cuisines and BBQ are offered. Here provides a wide range of restaurants to choose from. You can even enjoy a buffet, à la carte and bistro with live music.

The natural cave restaurant must also not be missed! You can even enjoy a drink at 10 bars (some bars charge a fee): pool bars located by the pool, Bio Bar with amazing bay views, specialized Mexican wine, Asian cocktails, Popular rooftop bars, and more! You can even enjoy unlimited access to eight parks and round-trip transportation services.

Xcaret Xailing: The hotel transfers to and from Cancun Marina, or you can take a ferry to and from Isla Mujeres.

Where to stay: Enjoy an outdoor pool that overlooks the sea or explore a private beach. You may even take on a special adventure by paddle boarding or kayaking on the river!

Night

Hotel: Hotel Xcaret México or similar Xcaret Park Hotel;

All day

Las Coloradas Pink Lake

Hidden away on the tip of Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula is a magical place full of color. These stunning cotton-candy pink lakes filled with salt are called Las Coloradas. The region is part of the Río Lagartos Biosphere Reserve, a protected wetlands area home to animals like flamingos, crocodiles, sea turtles, jaguars, and all kinds of sea birds. You may also have seen pictures of the breathtaking pink lakes, one of the most instagrammable spots in Mexico, through various social medias.

Cenote Hubiku

Cenote Hubiku is a popular cenote complex located between Valladolid and the Ek Balam ruins. The underground, semi open cenote has an opening in its roof where both natural lights and tree roots cascade towards its waters. At times, a small waterfalls cascades through the gap sending a spray of water down into the cenote. In fact, the Maya name Hubiku refers to its vast size and translates to “Iguanas Nest” or “the Great Lord”.

17:15 Head back to hotel

Please be noticed that this schedule may be subject to change depending on the actual circumstances.

All day

Chichén Itzá

Chichén Itzá is a complex of Mayan ruins on Mexico's Yucatán Peninsula. A massive step pyramid, known as El Castillo or Temple of Kukulcan, dominates the ancient city, which thrived from around 600 A.D. to the 1200s. Graphic stone carvings survive at structures like the ball court, Temple of the Warriors and the Wall of the Skulls. Nightly sound-and-light shows illuminate the buildings' sophisticated geometry.

Cenote Ik-Kil

Ik Kil is a cenote outside Pisté in the Tinúm Municipality, Yucatán, Mexico. The cenote is open to the sky with the water level about 26 metres (85 ft) below ground level. There is a carved stairway that leads down to a swimming platform. Ik Kil was considered sacred by the Mayans who used the site as a location for human sacrifice to their rain god, Chaac.

Suytun cenote

Located outside the charming town of Valladolid in southeast Mexico, Suytun Cenote is a breathtaking natural sinkhole that attracts many travelers. The highlight is the middle platform of the cenote, which offers a stunning photo op, especially when rays of sunlight shine through the cave opening above. Just remember to bring a camera that can handle the low light.
