Day 3

London - Vehicle - Cambridge - Vehicle - York

All day

Today we will travel from London to Cambridge! Sit back and relax as we take you to visit Cambridge University and experience the unique charm of this institution of higher education. After lunch, we will go to the famous tourist city of York. Here, you will get a chance to visit the York City Wall and York Minster. This town is historically rich and filled with a lot of culture.

Itinerary:

London → Cambridge → University of Cambridge (90 mins, optional for River Cam Cruise) → York → York City Walls (outside visit, 15 mins) → York Minster (outside visit, 15 mins)

All day

Cambridge University

The University of Cambridge is a collegiate research-based university in Cambridge. It was founded in 1209 and granted a royal charter by Henry III in 1231. Cambridge is the second-oldest university in the English-speaking world and the world's fourth-oldest surviving university. This university does not have a main campus, and its colleges and central facilities are scattered throughout the city.

River Cam Cruise

Cambridge, leaning on the Kang River, is agile and romantic town. Along the Kang River, the water is shining, and rows of famous colleges retreat all the way. Take a ride on the River Cam Cruise to enjoy the views of the amazing city.

York

York is frequently called the "City of Churches!" There are few cities in the North of England, or indeed the whole of Britain, that have a similar majestic beauty of York. Enjoy outstanding architecture and a history that spans from early Roman times in York!

York City Walls

York's historic city walls are a major feature of its historic environment and civic identity. The city walls make this town so unique! Explore with us today what makes them so special.

York Minster

Discover one of the world's most magnificent cathedrals, a masterpiece in stained glass and stone in a sacred space which has been at the center of Christianity in the north of England since the 7th century. The York Minster was built for the glory of God, and this is reflected in every aspect of this ancient building! It has exquisite, handcrafted stone throughout and has a collection of medieval stained glass.

All day

Gretna Green

Fun Fact: Gretna Green is famous for being the marriage capital of the UK! Every year around 5,000 couples get married here.

Windermere

Windermere, known as "the most beautiful natural scenery in England" is a famous tourist center. The Windermere lake was formed at the end of the last glacial period in a glacial valley running north-south through the Khumbulian Mountains. It is part of the Lake District National Park and has yacht entertainment in summer. Here, you can stroll through the lake district, which the British call "the back garden" to enjoy the beautiful scenery along the way.

Windermere Lake Cruise + Steam Train

Take a boat tour of the lake area of Windermere to admire the lakes and mountains that overlook the villas in the valley like a fairy tale world. The steam train, left in the last industrial period in Britain, still maintain its former appearance. When the train leaves the station, it emits a huge steam mist that spreads throughout the station and disappears into the mountains through the old trestle bridge.

Day 8

London city tour

All day

Today we will visit London, the world financial center! Together with New York and Hong Kong it is called "Port of Nuremberg." We will visit Big Ben, one of London's iconic landmarks, Westminster Abbey, the Prime Minister's official residence at 10 Downing Street, Buckingham Palace and the British Museum.

Itinerary:

Big Ben (outside visit, 15 mins) → Westminster Abbey (outside visit, 15 mins) → Parliament Square (outside visit, 15 mins) → 10 Downing Street (outside visit, 15 mins) → Buckingham Palace (outside visit, 15 mins) → The British Museum (1.5 hours) → London Free Time (You can participate in the Windsor Castle tour or River Thames Cruise and Royal Observatory Greenwich tour at your own expense)

All day

Big Ben

Big Ben is the nickname for the Great Bell of the striking clock at the north end of the Palace of Westminster. The official name of the tower in which Big Ben is located was originally the Clock Tower. It was renamed the Elizabeth Tower in 2012 to mark the Diamond Jubilee of Elizabeth II. When completed in 1859, it was the largest and most accurate clock in the world.

Westminster Abbey

Westminster Abbey is a large, mainly Gothic abbey church in the City of Westminster. It is one of the United Kingdom's most notable religious buildings and the traditional place of coronation and a burial site for English and later British monarchs. Sixteen royal weddings have occurred at the Abbey since 1100.

Parliament Square

Parliament Square in Westminster is located right next to Westminster Abbey and the Houses of Parliament. The square was created in the 1860s and contains statues of well-known statesmen including Winston Churchill, Abraham Lincoln, and Nelson Mandela.

Prime Minister's Office, 10 Downing Street

10 Downing Street is home to the British Prime Minister. Take a look through the gates from Whitehall and see the famous 10 Downing Street door which can only be opened from the inside. There is no access to the house or street for the general public, and it is not possible to do a 10 Downing Street tour. However, you can head to 10 Adam Street, only 800 meters (2,624 ft) away, where you can find a very similar door, now a hotspot, for tourists wanting to take a souvenir photo.

Buckingham Palace

Buckingham Palace is the London residence and administrative headquarters of the monarch of the United Kingdom. It is located in the City of Westminster! The palace is often at the center of state occasions and royal hospitality.

The British Museum

The British Museum is a public institution dedicated to human history, art and culture located in the Bloomsbury area of London, England. It has over eight million works of the largest collections during the era of the British Empire. It documents the story of human culture from its beginnings to the present day.

Windsor Castle

Windsor Castle is the oldest and largest occupied castle in the world! Since the era of Henry I, it has been used by the reigning monarch and is the longest-occupied palace in Europe. Many may disagree, but the castle's architecture and history is said to be a "place amongst the greatest European palaces."

River Thames Cruise

The Thames is the longest river in the UK and runs through the center of London. Take a leisurely sightseeing tour on the Thames River Cruise and enjoy the classic buildings on both sides of the strait.

Royal Observatory Greenwich

The Royal Observatory Greenwich is the historic home of British astronomy, Greenwich Mean Time, and the world-famous Meridian Line. It was established in the 17th century by King Charles II and designed by Sir Christopher Wren. The UK's largest historic telescope gave astronomers new views of the universe more than 100 years ago.
