Milan Cathedral

The Cathedral of Milan is one of the greatest symbols of Milan! It is a uniquely and intricately deigned church. It is one of the largest cathedrals in Italy and all of Europe. The cathedral is a place of prayer and teachings and is truly a must-see in Milan!

Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II

The Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II is Italy's oldest active shopping gallery and a major landmark of Milan in Italy. Housed within a four-story double arcade in the center of town, the Galleria is named after Victor Emmanuel II, the first king of the Kingdom of Italy. The structure consists of two glass-vaulted arcades intersecting in an octagon covering the street connecting Piazza del Duomo to Piazza della Scala. The street is covered by an arching glass and cast-iron roof, a popular design for 19th-century arcades and the central octagonal space is topped with a glass dome.

All day

Pienza

Perched on top of a beautiful hill in scenic Val d'Orcia, Pienza is a small town with incredible history. Originally just a village like many others in the area, Pienza saw his history and fame change in the late 1400s. At that time, the town gave birth to Enea Silvio Piccolomini, aka Pope Pius II, who decided to honor his town by turning it into an 'ideal city'. A follower of Humanist vision and philosophy, he turned Pienza into an urban utopia and we can still see the result of his vision today. Today, Pienza is a beautiful hilltop town in Tuscany with a distinct character, stunning location and interesting history.

Night

Hotel: 4-Star Hotel;

Day 7

Italian Town - Vehicle - Venice

All day

After breakfast, we will drive to Venice, known as the Water City, where the beauty of any building is inseparable from water. Venice has an extremely important position and influence in the world in terms of architecture, painting, sculpture, opera, etc. Venice has a reputation of "born from water, beautiful from water, and thriving from water".

Itinerary:

Italian Town → Venice (3 hours): outside visit Bridge of Sighs, Saint Mark's Basilica, St. Mark's Square, Rialto Bridge, Venice Canal Grande (Optional), Venice Gondola Rides Optional, 30 minutes)

Breakfast: In-hotel breakfast

Lunch: Take care of yourself, and enjoy ink fish sauce spaghetti and seafood meal at your own expense (minimum of 20 people)

Dinner: including dinner

All day

Bridge of Sighs

Called the Ponte dei Sospiri by locals, this iconic landmark was built in the year 1600 and connects the Doge's Palace to the historic prison across the canal. Even though it has a dark history where it was once a place to transport prisoners, today it is easily considered one of the most romantic places in Venice.

Saint Mark's Basilica

The works of the present St. Mark's basilica began in 1063 in Byzantine style to represent the power of the prosperous Venetian Republic. This basilica was built respecting the model of two basilicas of the ancient imperial city of Byzantium with a central plant in the shape of a Greek cross, with five large domes and a particular mixture of ancient and oriental art.

St. Mark's Square

The Basilica of San Marco overlooks one of the most beautiful squares in the world. Next to both the Basilica and the Doge's Palace is where all the most important religious and civil ceremonies have always been held. Piazza San Marco is now considered the city's main symbol and tourist attraction.

Rialto Bridge

Rialto Bridge, Italian Ponte di Rialto, stone arch bridge crossing over the narrowest point of the Grand Canal in the heart of Venice. Built in the closing years of the 16th century, the Rialto Bridge is the oldest bridge across the canal and is renowned as an architectural and engineering achievement of the Renaissance. The Rialto Bridge consists of a single stone-arch span that supports a broad rectangular deck carrying two arcades of shops fronting on three roadways. The lower chord of the bridge is only 25 metres (83 feet) in length, while the width is 20 metres (66 feet). To support the wide stone arch in the soft alluvial soil, 6,000 timber piles were driven under each abutment, and the bed joints of the stones were placed perpendicular to the thrust of the arch.

Venice Canal Grande

The Grand Canal is a channel in Venice, Italy. It forms one of the major water-traffic corridors in the city. One end of the canal leads into the lagoon near the Santa Lucia railway station and the other end leads into the basin at San Marco; in between, it makes a large reverse-S shape through the central districts (sestieri) of Venice. The banks of the Grand Canal are lined with more than 170 buildings, most of which date from the 13th to the 18th century, and demonstrate the welfare and art created by the Republic of Venice.

Venice Gondola Rides

The gondolas plying the busy Grand Canal and the smaller waterways of Venice are one of the most iconic images in the world. They are the symbol of history, tradition, and romance in the city on the lagoon, and a gondola ride in Venice ranks among one of the most dreamed-about experiences for travelers.

Night

Hotel: 4-Star Hotel;

Day 8

Venice - Vehicle - Verona - Vehicle - Milan

All day

After leaving Venice, we will go to Verona. Verona is the hometown of Romeo and Juliet in Shakespeare's plays and has always been a famous destination in Italy. Verona is located in northern Italy and is an ancient city that integrates ancient culture and modern civilization. It has a long history, beautiful scenery, and beautiful legends. Afterwards, you can choose to travel to the picturesque town of Sirmione by Lake Garda at your own expense. Finally, we continued to drive back to Milan.

Itinerary:

Venice → Verona (1 hour): outside visit Verona Arena, Verona Colosseum, Juliet's House → Sirmione (Optional) → Milan

Breakfast: In-hotel breakfast

Lunch: includes lunch

Dinner: Self care

All day

Verona Arena

Verona Arena (Arena di Verona) is a stunning Roman amphitheater built in the 1st century AD. As with many similar Roman constructions, the arena suffered during the decline and fall of the Empire and was pillaged for masonry during the middle ages. Despite this however, and with a certain amount of restoration, Verona Arena stands in an excellent state of preservation today and still hosts a number of events, operas, and open-air performances.

Juliet's House

Juliet's House is supposed to be the house where Juliet (from Shakespeare famous love story Romeo and Juliet) used to live. In fact, the balcony of the house was the place where both lovers declared their love to each other. Today, the house is one of the major attractions in Verona and receives thousands of tourists every year!

Sirmione

Sirmione is one of the most beautiful towns on Lake Garda and one of the most popular. It is perched at the top of a thin strip of land stretching onto the lake and it is almost entirely surrounded by water, a position that makes the town unique and very atmospheric.

6. During the actual trip, the tour guide or driver has the right to appropriately adjust the tour sequence, stay time or assembly time of scenic spots according to the weather, traffic, and other conditions to ensure the smooth progress of the trip.
7. If the scenic spots are temporarily closed or closed on a particular holiday, etc., the tour guide will adjust the appearance according to the actual situation or replace the location with another scenic spot to ensure the richness of the itinerary.

8. Children under the age of 8 require a booster seat in order to participate in the tour group. ALL AMERICA TRAVEL provide the rental service for $10.00/person/day. Please make a request when booking the itinerary so that we may have the booster seat ready in advance. Please understand that the violations and fines are borne by the guests themselves. There is no need for a booster seat for bus travel on the day of travel, and the fee can be refunded to the guest.

9. Normal health conditions are required to participate and enjoy our full itineraries. Contact us for specific policies or information regarding passengers with disabilities who do need to provide advance notification to make a reservation. ALL AMERICA TRAVEL do not guarantee a wheelchair lift-equipped bus and/or seating availability to disabled passengers without prior notification and approval.

10. Guests are required to bring their own relevant documents and materials required for entry or cross-border travel. Whether they can enter or leave the country is subject to the decision of the customs of each country. The inability to enter the country is a force majeure factor, and the paid tour fee will not be refunded.

11. We may alter these terms and conditions from time to time and post the new version on our agents' website. It is your responsibility to check the [\[Terms & Conditions\]](#) on their website regularly and prior to making a reservation. Unless specifically stated otherwise herein or required by law, ALL AMERICA TRAVEL shall not be liable for any consequential, compensatory, indirect, incidental or punitive damages arising out of or in connection with the performance of its obligations under these terms and conditions.

12. Due to the oil price soar and the cost of vehicle greatly increased, starting April 1, 2022, please be advised that all bus tours will be subject to an additional transportation surcharge of $5 per person per day, which will be paid together with the tour fees when you place the order.

Know Before You Go

1. The maximal waiting time for any late passengers is 10 minutes beyond the meeting time announced by the Tour Guide. While ALL AMERICA TRAVEL makes every effort to provide on-time service, it does not guarantee to arrive at or depart from any point as a specific time, which may be affected by any number of factors including weather, traffic, strikes, government shutdowns, war or terrorist attacks, or mechanical problems. ALL AMERICA TRAVEL is not liable for any inconvenience or expense caused as a result of such a delay, not liable for the expense of connecting air or train or bus service missed as a result of a delay and not liable for any other travel expense caused as a result of a delay.

2. ALL AMERICA TRAVEL reserve the right, when operating conditions require, transferring passengers from one vehicle to another en route.

3. The following documents are recommended to make your check-in process smooth: A valid photo ID is required to board the bus; We recommend you bring a copy of the email confirmation to board the bus.

4. This product is a group activity. If you choose to leave the group, please inform in advance, and obtain the consent of the tour guide. You need to sign the departure agreement form and the unfinished part will be regarded as your own abandonment. The group fee will not be refunded.

5. Gift items in the itinerary that cannot be given away due to force majeure factors such as traffic and weather conditions or personal reasons may be subject to change. Please understand that the fees will not be refunded.
