New York City Fortune Tour

Today, we will visit some classic landmarks in the financial center of New York, such as Hero's Canyon, Park Road Building, Trinity Church, the New York Stock Exchange, Rockefeller Center, and many more, to experience the district's rich financial and commercial atmosphere!

One World Trade Center Observatory

One World Trade Center is the main building of the rebuilt World Trade Center complex in Lower Manhattan, New York City. It is the tallest building in the Western Hemisphere. There, 102 stories up, you will find yourself face-to-face with New York's iconic skyline. Maybe you've seen views of the city before, but never quite like this one. Walk the three sprawling levels of the Observatory and discover many surprises along the way.

Liberty Cruise

Any trip to New York City must include a boat cruise around the Statue of Liberty. This iconic landmark has stood in the city that never sleeps for more than 100 years, built initially as a joint effort between the United States and France to celebrate the anniversary of America's independence. You will ride on this amazing sightseeing cruise tour on the Hudson River to enjoy the city view from a totally different angle.

Museum of Modern Art

MoMA has been important in developing and collecting modernist art and is often identified as one of the largest and most influential museums of modern art in the world. The impressive collection that it houses includes works by Pollock, Dali, van Gogh, Picasso, and others.
