Day 2

Martha's Vineyard 1-Day Tour

All day

Today we will sail away to the island of Martha's Vineyard aboard the Island Queen Ferry. The ferry has complete facilities, attentive service, and beautiful scenery along the way. Our crew will go out of their way to make you feel welcome! Martha's Vineyard Island has a comfortable climate and a large number of charming beaches, cliffs, sunset scenery, and many interesting stories about sailing and fishing. We will take a bus tour of Martha's Vineyard Island and listen to the guide to tell us about the history of the island. In the afternoon, we will enjoy free activities on Martha's Vineyard Island and finally return to Boston.

Itinerary:

Boston → Island Queen Ferry (Optional, 35 mins) → Martha's Vineyard Sightseeing Bus Tour (Optional, 120 mins) → Lunch+Free Time (150 mins) → Island Queen Ferry (Optional, 35 mins) → Boston

All day

Island Queen Ferry

Getting to Martha's Vineyard is half the fun when you sail on the Island Queen. Parking is a cinch, it's just 200 yards from the dock. And if you have a bike, just bring it on-board. Your trip from Falmouth to Oak Bluffs is just 35 minutes. Enjoy our enclosed lounge or outside decks. Have a cup of chowder or relax with a cocktail. Our crew goes out of their way to make you feel welcome.

Martha's Vineyard

Martha's Vineyard is a picturesque island paradise, just 7 miles off the coast of Massachusetts but a world away from the hustle and bustle of the mainland. Martha's Vineyard, often simply called the Vineyard, is an island in the Northeastern United States, located south of Cape Cod in Dukes County, Massachusetts, known for being a popular, affluent summer colony.

Martha's Vineyard sightseeing bus tours

An excellent choice for first-time visitors to Martha's Vineyard, this tour is led by a third-generation local and offers a good overview of the island. Listen as your host shares stories and history and even passes around items such as shells and wool for you to see and feel. There will be time for photos, shopping, and snacks along the way.

Day 4

Boston - Vehicle - Portland - Vehicle - Acadia National Park

All day

In the morning, we will head to Portland to watch the Portland Head Lighthouse. The lighthouse is located in Williamsburg Park. It was built by the first President of the United States, George Washington. Then we went to Acadia National Park. Acadia Park was the main resort of the 19th century American billionaire John Rockefeller family, Carnegie and JPMorgan. You can enjoy all the beautiful scenery in this park!

Itinerary:

Boston → Fort Williams Park & Portland Lighthouse (Optional, 40 mins) → Acadia National Park In-depth Tour
(Mandatory, 120mins, Cadillac Mountain 45 mins + Sand Beach 30 mins + Thunder Hole 45 mins included) → Hotel

Morning

Portland Head Lighthouse

For more than 200 years, the lighthouse known as the Portland Head Light has been a beacon for ships off the coast of New England. The lighthouse was first authorized built by the first president of the United States; George Washington in 1787, which faces to the Atlantic Ocean, visitors can shoot from all angles of the lighthouse. And the lighthouse still is in use in the present.

Afternoon

Acadia National Park

Acadia National Park protects the natural beauty of the highest rocky headlands along the Atlantic coastline of the United States, an abundance of habitats, and a rich cultural heritage. At 3.5 million visits a year, it's one of the top 10 most-visited national parks in the United States. Visitors enjoy 27 miles of historic motor roads, 158 miles of hiking trails, and 45 miles of carriage roads.

Cadillac Mountain

The Cadillac Mountain is formed millions of years ago through the formation of crustal movement and cooling pink granite. Along the way we can enjoy a very nice view of Eagle Lake, then we reach up the summit, we can see up to 60 islands scattered in the spectacular views of the Atlantic Ocean, we are really feeling Maine father, mother earth and ocean romance darling generated.

Thunder Hole

As one of Maine's most awe-inspiring natural wonders, Thunder Hole is carved naturally out of the coastal rocks, battered by waves for centuries. The combination of the waves hitting the rocks and the release of air from the cavern cause a thunderous boom to happen. No trip to Acadia National Park is complete without visiting it. Thunder Hole is a quintessentially Maine landmark that offers more than just the trademark thunder; there are stunning views in every direction from the high rocks surrounding this historical inlet.

The Niagara Whirlpool's greatest depth is 125 feet. It is estimated that the whirlpool formed approximately 7,500 years ago by an upstream erosion of the Niagara escarpment by the Niagara River.

Cave of the Winds

The Cave of the Winds on the New York side of Niagara Falls is an attraction, which allows sightseers to walk right up to the base of the Bridal Veil Falls with water crashing right down on them and flowing beneath the decking!

Maid of The Mist

It's the combination of height and volume that makes the Niagara Falls so beautiful. More than 6 million cubic ft. (168,000 cubic meters) of water lays over the crest line of the falls every minute during daytime peak tourist hours. And the famous Maid of the Mist ride gets passengers as close as possible to the Niagara Falls! The Maid rides right into the mists thrown up by the roaring cascade as the Niagara River tumbles over the edge of the falls.

or

Old Fort Niagara State Park

Old Fort Niagara is a rich historical landmark. It spans more than 300 years and its commanding presence on the great lake caused it to play a critical role in several major wars: The French and Indian War, the American Revolution War, and the War of 1812. In addition, the gorgeous Lake Ontario lies behind the Fort.
