- . Bilingual guide
- . Box lunch

Special Notes:

1. Wear comfortable clothes, especially long pair of trousers, sun blocker, sun glasses and an extra coat. Gloves, hat, waterproof wind breaker and a bag pack.
2. People doing this tour should be fit since it demands a physical effort.

Option2: Excursion Todo Glaciares (Full Day) - Shuttle Service with English speaking guide.

Resources are tight, so it is recommended to make reservations in advance. Please confirm in advance whether reservations are available.

From Punta Bandera Port, 47km from El Calafate, we will start sailing along the North Arm of Lake Argentino. We will cross the Boca del Diablo to the Canal Upsala to navigate among the large icebergs that come off the front of the Upsala Glacier.

Then we will enter the Canal Spegazzini and later we will have the first view of the Dry Glacier. We will continue sailing to the front of the Spegazzini Glacier where we will also contemplate the Heim Sur and Peineta glaciers. We will prepare to disembark at the Spegazzini Base and begin the visit to the area by walking through the forest trail to the Refugio Spegazzini. This 300-meter trail is accessible and as we walk along it, we will stop at stations and viewpoints overlooking the entire Bay Glacier. In the Refuge we can have lunch, visit the shop or contemplate the landscape. For those who like to walk, they can take the mountain trail. This route is a medium difficulty trekking through a wooded path, with natural viewpoints, full of incredible views that end at the landing point.

Entrance fee for National Park Perito Moreno is included.
