Tour introduction

Day 1

Seattle - Vehicle - Vancouver

All day

Let's take a tour of the beautiful city of Vancouver! This major city is in western Canada, in the Lower Mainland region of British Columbia. Vancouver is consistently named as one of the top five worldwide cities for livability and quality of life! See why this city is so amazing with us today!

Itinerary:

Seattle → Vancouver → Stanley Park (60 mins) → Chinatown (pass by) → Canada Place (60 mins, you can participate in the FlyOver Canada 4D experience for 30 minutes at your own expense) → Gastown Steam Clock (20 mins) → Granville Island (60 mins)

All day

Stanley park

Stanley Park is the perfect place to get close to nature! It is North America's third largest park and a perfect place to explore the beauty of nature. Approximately eight million people visit Stanley Park every year. People love to especially walk along or skate near the Seawall. The Seawall is a 5.5-mile path that runs along the water giving off spectacular views!

Vancouver Chinatown

Vancouver's Chinatown has been a place of culture and is known for its amazing authentic food scene. The Millennium Gate is the landmark most visitors look for upon entering Chinatown. And, it is also one of the largest historic Chinatown in all of North America! Come visit the beauty and culture of this amazing place.

Gastown Steam Clock

A working steam clock, one of only a few in the world, located in Vancouver's Victorian Gastown. Every quarter-hour, the two-ton Steam Clock sounds, whistling and shooting steam from its five whistles in its version of the Westminster Chime. On the hour it marks each hour with a toot from each whistle. The clock is a key tourist destination in Vancouver.

Canada Place

Canada Place is a beautiful spot to walk around, sightsee and take amazing photos! It is a building located on the Burrard Inlet waterfront of Vancouver. It is the home of the Vancouver Convention Centre, the Pan Pacific Vancouver Hotel, Vancouver's World Trade Centre, and the virtual flight ride FlyOver Canada.

FlyOver Canada

FlyOver Canada is a tourist attraction located at Canada Place in downtown Vancouver. The ride takes guests on a virtual flight across Canada! It is such a unique way to look at the Rocky Mountains, Newfoundland's icebergs, and Niagara Falls! The entire journey takes you from the east coast of Canada to the west bank to see the beautiful natural landscapes and the city. It will leave you with an unforgettable experience!

Granville Island

Once you're there, the biggest attraction on Granville Island is the Public Market. Housed indoors, there are endless rows of stalls that feature fresh produce, gourmet foods, baked goods, and seafood. For the food-focused enthusiast, a walking tour of the market can be a great way to get an insider's insight.

Day 2

Vancouver - Vehicle - Kelowna - Vehicle - Revelstoke / Salmon Arm

All day

In the morning, we will pass through the town of Merritt and head to visit the famous local "VQA" rare wine winery. Shortly after, we will head to Kelowna, the hometown of Fruits in BC, and then go to the Okanagan Lake. Finally, we will return to Revelstoke.

Itinerary:

Vancouver → Merritt (Pass by) → Kelowna → Winery (45 mins) → Okanagan Lake (30 mins) → Revelstoke / Salmon

Arm

All day

Grizzli Winery/Summer Hill Winery

Grizzli Winery is in the center of Okanagan, Canada. The Winery is surrounded by several mountains and lakes! And, the sunshine and large temperature differences between the day and night help to create uniquely tasting wines.

Okanagan Lake

Okanagan Lake is a lake where algae and plant growth are limited. The shallow portions at either end of the lake tend to have the most plant growth. This lake is a must-see destination and will be worth the visit.

Day 3

Revelstoke/Salmon Arm - Vehicle - Columbia Icefield - Vehicle - Banff - Vehicle - Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise

All day

In the morning, we headed to the Rocky Mountains along Highway 1, passing through the famous Rogers Canyon Passage in Glacier National Park. Then enter Banff National Park via Yoho National Park. Then arrive at Columbia Glacier. You can take an icefield snowmobile to feel the temperature of the ice and snow of Athabasca Glacier and touch it for thousands of years. Glaciers leave beautiful memories of your travels. Next, go to the crystal clear Peyto Lake and leave beautiful memories in the scenery of the lake and mountains. Then go to visit the famous Bow River Falls, and finally arrive in Banff city. Guests can go to the gift shop and taste a variety of different delicacies on their own. Check in to the Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise in the evening and have delicious dinner.

Itinerary:

Revelstoke/Salmon Arm → Glacier National Park (Pass by) → Yoho National Park (Pass by) → Banff National Park → Columbia Icefield (90 mins, Including icefield snowmobile tour time) → Bow Lake (passing by) → Peyto Lake (20 mins) → Bow Falls (10 mins) → Banff Town (60 mins) → Dinner at the Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise (90 mins)

All day

Glacier National Park

Glacier National Park is one of forty-three national parks located within Canada. It has approximately 521 square miles of protected areas and includes portions of the Columbia Mountains, as well as Rogers Pass National Historic Site. The park contains active glaciers and snowy peaks! It is also home to one of Canada's largest cave systems and even offers a large selection of plants and animals to see.

Yoho National Park

Yoho National Park lies on the western slopes of the Canadian Rocky Mountains. Vertical rock walls, waterfalls and high peaks draw visitors from all around the world to this unique national park! Yoho offers exceptional hiking and sightseeing for everyone to enjoy! The park even offers a unique glimpse of Canada's natural wonders and an insight of this alpine majesty!

Banff National Park

Banff National Park is famously known for its colored lakes, majestic mountains, and endless outdoor adventures that it has to offer! It is also Canada's very first national park and the world's third! It has a rich heritage and is one of the world's most awe-inspiring mountain destinations to discover! Make sure to even take a special look at its easy access and close proximity that it has to the vast unspoiled wilderness of the Canadian Rockies. The park itself spans 6,641 square kilometers (2,564 square miles) of pure mountainous terrain. It is greatly packed with spectacular scenic valleys, peaks, glaciers, forests, meadows, and rivers. Take a look at what makes Banff National Park so unique!

Columbia Icefield

Columbia Icefield is what is left of a gigantic sheet of ice that covered and formed most of the landscape in the Rocky Mountains. The Ice field covers an area today of 325 square kilometers or 130 square miles and is such an amazing location to explore!

Bow Lake

Bow Lake is located approximately 30 minutes north of Lake Louise and off the Icefields Parkway (Hwy 93) in the Canadian Rockies. It is half a mile north of the Crowfoot Glacier. It sits at an elevation of 1,920 m (6,300 ft) and is one of the largest lakes at the Banff National Park. It is fed by the meltwater from the Bow Glacier in the Wapta Icefield. Bow Lake is a wonderful place for a picnic and to enjoy scenic breathtaking views.

Peyto Lake

Every summer, a large amount of glacial rock powder flows into the lake, and the particles of these rocks make the lake appear bright turquoise. Therefore, Peyto Lake has become a popular tourist attraction in the park.

Bow Falls

Bow Falls is a major waterfall on the Bow River. It offers breathtaking views and an experience of being closer to nature! Bow Falls is also famously featured in the 1953 Marilyn Monroe film River of No Return. Embrace your inner nature love and be amazed by its wonderful beauty.

Town of Banff

Banff is a town within Banff National Park in Alberta, Canada. Banff is a resort town and one of Canada's most popular tourist destinations to discover. It is highly known for its mountainous surroundings and hot springs. It is also a perfect destination for outdoor sports and extensive hiking, biking, scrambling and skiing.

Day 5

Revelstoke / Salmon Arm - Vehicle - Kamloops - Vehicle - Vancouver - Vehicle - Seattle

All day

Today, we will proceed to the famous "Last Spike" in the Pacific Railroad Memorial Park. Then, we will head to visit the Kamloops which is the hometown of Ginseng. Then go to the gold rush town—Hope Town. Finally, we will drive back to Seattle.

Itinerary:

Revelstoke → The Last Spike (20 mins) → Kamloops Ginseng Factory (45 mins) → Hope (30 mins) → Fraser Valley (Pass-by) → Vancouver → Seattle

All day

The Last Spike

The Last Spike was the final and ceremonial railway spike driven into the Canadian Pacific Railway (CPR) track by company director Donald Smith on the morning of November 7th, 1885. The ceremony marked the completion of the transcontinental CPR. It was a muted affair at which a group of company officials and laborers gathered at Craigellachie. The Last Spike symbolized more than just the completion of a railway. Contemporaries and historians have viewed the Last Spike as an event when national unity was recognized.

Kamloops Ginseng Factory

Ginseng Factory is located in Kamloops. Due to its pollution-free fertile soil and semi-desert dry climate, Kamloops has become the largest producer of American ginseng. It is famously known as the "Ginseng Capital." During this visit, visitors will have the chance to understand the growth process of American ginseng and its various nourishing medicinal effects.

Hope

Hope town is the perfect place to walk around and explore. It is filled with beautiful nature views and have an experience of instant relaxation. Take a look at all that this town has to offer.
