2 Poás Volcano - Peace Falls - DOKA Coffee Garden - San José

After breakfast, proceed to Poas Volcano, a half-hour drive from San Jose to Poas volcano, on the way to picturesque scenery, and through the Cloud Forest area of Poas Volcano National Park. Upon arrival at the destination, a guided tour accompanies the summit to overlook the world's largest volcanic crater. The deep green lake at the bottom of the pit is not deep enough, but a thin stream of hot air can be observed and snuffed out of the sulphurous odor. Lunch will be served in the famous local restaurant. Afterwards, visit the famous coffee factory brand - DOKA Coffee Garden. The coffee smell filled the store. There were many tastes of coffee in the store. Visitors were invited to drink. Under the guidance of the narrator, they learned about the cultivation of coffee, harvesting, baking and packaging. The process then goes to La Paz Waterfall Park. A place full of green nature, in addition to the largest and most special white waterfalls in the park, you can also visit the park's Eco Butterfly Garden, Insect Hall, Snake Hall, Frog Hall, etc. frog close contact. Then return to San Jose.

3 Tortuguero National Park

The name Tortuguero means the home of the Turtles, the most famous and characteristic national park in Costa Rica (excluding tickets). Tortuguero is a 20-mile long oasis with a natural canal on one side and a beautiful Caribbean on the other. Entering Tortuguero from the waterway, it seems to be in the Jurassic Park, the entire national park is quiet and beautiful. This is the most important habitat for green turtles in the Western Hemisphere. From July to September every year, green turtles come to the beaches of the sea to build their nests and lay eggs. Drive to the famous National Park in the northeast in the morning, and enjoy the magical cloud forest all the way through the forest to the lower elevation of the Province of Limon, where banana estates can be found everywhere. Boarding a special cruise ship, the boat travels slowly and the shores can also find wild animals. After lunch, after a short break, take a stroll through the town of Tortuguero in the afternoon. Free time at night. (July to September, you can participate in the night to find a sea turtle spawning trip at your own expense). (B/L/D)

Hotel: Aninga Lodge or similar

4 Tortuguero National Park - San José

After getting up early in the morning, enjoy watching Costa Rica like the Amazon River in South America. After breakfast, board a special cruise and transfer to Green Turtle National Park to return to San Jose. Lunch on the way. The Arenal volcano is the most active volcano in Costa Rica and will erupt without interruptions. The eruptors will emit large amounts of smoke and volcanic ash to the blue sky. Immerse yourself in the hot springs and hear the volcanic activity from time to time. In the evening you can watch the volcano wonders. The magma snakes like a snake and the fire light shines on the earth next to the volcano. It is like a fireworks display. Return to San Jose after dinner. (B/L)
