Pearl Harbor

Pearl Harbor is an American lagoon harbor on the island of Oahu, Hawaii, west of Honolulu. Much of the harbor and surrounding lands are now a United States Navy deep-water naval base. It is also the headquarters of the United States Pacific Fleet. The surprise attack by the Imperial Japanese Navy on December 7, 1941, led the United States to declare war on the Empire of Japan, making the attack on Pearl Harbor the immediate cause of the United States' entry into World War II.

Hawaii State Capital

夏威夷州議會大廈建於1969年，是一個後現代主義的概念化建築產物，貝聿銘的作品，風格獨特。兩座圓錐狀的立法廳代表著夏威夷的根源—

火山，眾多支撐柱象徵著棕櫚樹，環繞露天圓形大廳的巨大水池則代表環抱著夏威夷群島的太平洋。

Kamehameha Statue, Kapaau

Just beyond the lovely town of Hawi in North Kohala is the small town of Kapaau. In front of the North Kohala Civic Center stands the original King Kamehameha I Statue, erected not far from where Hawaii's greatest king was born. Today, iconic statues honor King Kamehameha's memory, perhaps the most well-known King Kamehameha Statue stands across the street from Iolani Palace on Oahu.

Iolani Palace

The 'Iolani Palace is located in the capitol district of downtown Honolulu in the U.S. state of Hawai'i. It is now a National Historic Landmark listed on the National Register of Historic Places. After the monarchy was overthrown in 1893, the building was used as the capitol building for the Provisional Government, Republic, Territory, and State of Hawai'i until 1969. The palace was restored and opened to the public as a museum in 1978. The 'Iolani Palace is the only royal palace on US soil.

The blowhole is most active when the tide is high and the winds are strong, and it can shoot sea spray up to thirty feet high in the air.

Nuuanu Pali Lookout
