All day

Magic Kingdom

Disney's Magic Kingdom is perhaps the most famous of all the various Disney parks, both in Florida and around the world. The iconic Cinderella's Castle is the centerpiece of the park, which features rides, shows, and actors based on fairytales.

or

Epcot

The amazing and iconic EPCOT center is a theme park unlike any other. It is dedicated to the achievements of mankind; to world cultures and celebrating differences; and to technological innovations that will lead us to a brighter tomorrow.

Disney's Hollywood Studios

Formerly known as MGM Studios, this thrilling theme park is perhaps best known for the Twilight Zone-themed Tower of Terror Ride. The park overall is based on Old Hollywood, and draws inspiration from the 1930s and 40s.

Disney's Animal Kingdom

The largest Disney theme park in the world at 500 acres, this amazing nature-based zoo, aquarium, and theme park offers an experience unlike any other. At its center stand the Tree of Life, a 145-foot-tall sculpture representing the ecological web.

Universal Studios

It's the world's premier movie and TV based theme park. Universal Studios Florida inspires its guests to "ride the movies", and it features numerous attractions and live shows. The park is one component of the larger Universal Orlando Resort.

Islands of Adventure

Opened in 1999, this park is one of two that make up the Universal Studios Orlando. The park is split into seven theme areas, including the Wizarding World of Harry Potter, based off that beloved series of books. Brand-new Skull Island: Reign of Kong was opened in the summer of 2016.

Universal's Volcano Bay

A water park constructed as part of Universal Orlando Resort in Orlando, Florida. It will replace Wet & Wild as Universal Orlando's water theme park, and will be the first constructed by Universal Orlando itself. The park, themed around a 200-foot-tall (61 m) volcano named "Krakatau", open on June 1, 2017.

SeaWorld Orlando

SeaWorld Orlando is one of most popular theme parks in the world. Most famously, it is home to the Shamu killer whale show, but it is home to a litany of other sea life, including sharks, dolphins, stingrays, flamingos, and pelicans.

Aquatica Water Park Orlando

This sister park of SeaWorld opened in 2008, making it one of the newest Orlando parks. Themed after the South Pacific, the park has two wave pools, a number of slides, animal habitats, and much more.

Typhoon Lagoon

The most-visited water park in the entire world, Typhoon Lagoon is also home to the largest outdoor wave pool on the planet. Every 90 minutes, a loud, deep noise announces the coming of a six-foot wave in the Surf Pool.

Blizzard Water Park

Disney's Blizzard Beach is an ski-resort-themed water park nested under the hot sun of Florida. The centerpiece of the park is Mount Gushmore, from which guests can speed down a number of exciting water slides.

LEGOLAND Theme Park Orlando

The largest Legoland in North America is the one in Winter Haven, Florida. It contains more than 50 rides, including four roller coasters and one water ride. And of course, the park is dotted with amazing Lego sculptures.

LEGOLAND Water Park

Legoland Water Park is a water park area in Legoland California. Construction began in September 2009. It opened on May 28, 2010. It is located next to the buildings in Fun Town. It is the first Legoland to feature a waterpark. Guests can pay an additional $20/person and upgrade their tour to go both LEGO theme park and water park (LEGO Water Park cannot be selected alone).
